ACT 3.

To Amend Chapter 6 of the Penal Code Relating to Treason.

BE IT ENACTED by the Executive and Advisory Councils of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands:

SECTION 1.—If any person owing allegiance to the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands, levies war against it, or adheres to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort within the Hawaiian Islands or elsewhere, he is guilty of treason.

SECTION 2.—Every person guilty of treason shall suffer the punishment of death, or, at the discretion of the court, shall be imprisoned at hard labor for any term not less than five years, and fined not less than five thousand dollars, which fine shall be levied on and collected out of any or all of his property, real and personal, of which he was the owner at the time of committing such treason, any sale or conveyance thereof to any person having knowledge of such treason to the contrary notwithstanding; and every person so convicted of treason shall, moreover, be incapable of holding any office under this government.

SECTION 3.—No person shall be out-victed of treason except upon the evidence of two or more witnesses to the same overt act, or upon his confession in open court.

SECTION 4.—If any person owing allegiance to the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands and having knowledge of the commission of treason against it, conceals the same and does not, as soon as may be, disclose and make known the same to some member of the Executive Council, or to some Judge of a Court of Record, or to the Marshal, or to some Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff, or is guilty of misprision of treason, and shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor for not more than five years and by fine of not more than five thousand dollars.

SECTION 5.—If two or more persons conspire to overthrow, put down or destroy by force the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands, or to levy war against it, or to oppose by force the authority thereof, or by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of any law thereof, or by force to seize, take or possess any property thereof contrary to the authority thereof, each of them shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, and not more than five thousand dollars; or by imprisonment at hard labor for not less than six months nor more than six years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 6.—If any person recruits soldiers or sailors within the Hawaiian Islands to engage in armed hostility against said Provisional Government, or who opens within the Hawaiian Islands, a recruiting station for the enlistment of such soldiers or sailors to serve in any manner in armed hostility against said Provisional Government, he shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars, and by imprisonment at hard labor for not less than six months nor more than six years.

SECTION 7.—Every soldier or sailor enlisted or engaged within the Hawaiian Islands with intent to serve in armed hostility against said Provisional Government, shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars and by imprisonment at hard labor for not less than one year nor more than three years.

SECTION 8.—Allegiance is the fidelity, obedience and support due the Government from those under its protection. An alien, whether his native country be at peace or at war with this Government, owes allegiance to this Government during his residence within its borders, and is capable of committing treason and misprision of treason.

SECTION 9.—Chapter 6 of the Penal Code is hereby repealed.

SECTION 10.—This Act shall take effect upon publication.

Approved this 20th day of January, A. D. 1893.

SANFORD B. DOLE,
President of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands.

J. A. KING,
Minister of the Interior.

HIS IMPERIAL JAPANESE MAJESTY'S
CONSULATE-GENERAL,

The following certificate which was procured from the United States Brewers' Academy for the purpose of ascertaining the good quality of the "Budweiser Beer" brewed by the FRED. MILLER BREWING CO., Milwaukee, Wis., explains itself:

NEW YORK, April 9, 1892.

FRED MILLER BREWING CO.,
MILWAUKEE, WIS.

GENTLEMEN: The sample of beer which we examined for you contains in 100 parts:

	Per cent.
Alcohol	3.41
Extract	5.45
Sugar	1.32
Dextrin	2.68
Albuminoids	0.26
Lactic Acid	0.10
Mineral Substances	0.14
Hop Extract, etc.	0.31

According to this analysis, we beg to state that in our opinion, the Beer has been well brewed, well fermented and well stored. It has a good life and shows good keeping qualities. The Beer has a good and nice round taste, and we can safely recommend it as a wholesome beverage.

Yours respectfully,
UNITED STATES BREWERS' ACADEMY,
